

Sec. 10-9. Fees.

The county administrative officer may impose reasonable charges and fees for permits, inspections and other services rendered by the administrative officials under the authority hereof.

ARTICLE IV—Licenses.Sec. 10-10. Required to engage an electrical business generally; exceptions.

No person shall install, repair, maintain or erect any kind of electrical wiring, conduits, machinery, appliances, motors, fixtures, signs, radios, television and electronic equipment, electrically operated heating equipment, elevators or any other electrically operated apparatus or device in or about any premises in the county without having obtained a license is required by or having otherwise complied with this title EXCEPT,

(1) ~~Other than~~ Utility companies regulated by the Public Service Commission of Maryland;

(2) Persons making minor repairs and replacements to existing wiring or equipment in their own home;

(3) Radio and electronic experimenters and amateurs where no change in existing wiring is necessary, unless changes are authorized by the Electrical Administrative Board of the county, and in each case the applicant must file an application with the departments of permits and licenses for a permit and inspection.

(4) Employees of the U.S. Government when engaged in performance of their official duties only.

(5) PERSONS WORKING UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF A MASTER GENERAL ELECTRICIAN OR UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF A SPECIFIED REPRESENTATIVE OF A PERSON, FIRM OR CORPORATION HOLDING A MASTER LIMITED ELECTRICIAN LICENSE.

Unless otherwise required by this title, no person engaged in the manufacture, assembly or repair of electrical equipment manufactured by such person or manufactured for such person by a parent or subsidiary shall be required to hold or to employ the holder of any of the licenses provided for by this title solely by reason of such manufacture, assembly or repair.

Sec. 10-11. Classes—enumerated.

There shall be three classes of electricians' licenses as follows:

- (a) Master general electrician.
- (b) Master limited electrician.
- (c) Restricted electrician.

Sec. 10-12. Same—master general electrician license—Scope.

A master general electrician license shall be issued to any person or the representative of any person eligible under this title. Any firm or corporation shall be entitled to receive this license if and so long as at least one of its employees is the holder of a master general electrician license. Such license shall authorize the holder to perform, or have performed under his supervision, any of the work described in section 10-10 of this Code. If such license is held by a firm or corporation any of the work described in section 10-10 of this Code may be performed for itself or for others.