

by the board and shall state the number of years he has been engaged in electrical work, the type or types in which so engaged, and the name and address of his then employer, or, if not then employed, the name and address of his last previous employers. The application shall be accompanied by one or more letters from employers certifying to the character and qualifications of the applicant and the fitness of the applicant for the type of license applied for.

The application of a firm or corporation for a license pursuant to the provisions of this title, shall be made on a form supplied by the board, signed in the name of the applicant by an executive officer or plant manager, and shall set forth the name and qualifications of the employee or employees whose employment entitled the applicant to receive the type of license applied for and under whose supervision all electrical work to be done for the applicant will be performed.

Sec. 10-19. Examination ; score required for passing.

Every individual applicant for a master general electrician or a master limited electrician or restricted electrician license shall submit to an examination.

In order to qualify for a license the applicant shall correctly answer at least seventy per cent of the questions propounded.

Sec. 10-20. Same—Decision.

Promptly after an examination and within not more than forty-five days, the board shall render its decision as to the qualifications of the applicant and as to whether or not the license applied for will be granted. Notice of such decision shall be sent to the applicant by mail.

Sec. 10-21. Same—Time of conducting.

Examinations for licenses pursuant to the provisions of this title shall be given semi-annually during the months of March and September in each year on such days as may be fixed by the board. Applications for licenses for which an examination is required must be filed with the board on or before the fifteenth day of the month preceding the examination. Special examinations may be given by the board at any time in its discretion.

Sec. 10-22. Appeal from refusal of examination or license.

Any person whose application for an examination has been rejected or his failure to obtain a passing mark under this title shall have the right to appeal from such decision to a board of arbitration consisting of one person selected by the applicant, one person selected by the board, and one person selected by the counsel to the county. The board of arbitration shall review the action of the board and make such additional investigation as to the applicant's qualifications as it may deem proper and shall by a majority vote, determine whether the application or license shall be granted. The decision of the board of arbitration shall be final.

At the time of filing a notice of appeal the applicant must deposit with the board the sum of thirty dollars. In the event the appeal is successful such deposit will be refunded to the applicant; otherwise it shall be retained by the board.

Sec. 10-23. Examination and license fees ; renewals.

Each applicant for a license who is required by this title to submit to an examination shall pay a fee of fifteen dollars to cover the cost of such examination, which payment shall accompany the application and shall not be refundable.
