

Department of Motor Vehicles, at least 60 days notice of the date on which his license shall expire as provided in this section. The application shall require the full legal name, residence address, race, sex, height, weight, and date of birth of the applicant, whether the applicant ever has had a driver's license refused, revoked, cancelled or suspended, the applicant's general physical condition, and such other information and answers as the Commissioner by regulation shall require.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (b), a license held by any person who enters or is on active service in the Armed Forces of the United States shall continue in full force and effect so long as such active service continues and such person is absent from this State, and for a further period of thirty days following the date of such person's discharge or separation from active service or return to this State, unless such license is sooner suspended, cancelled or revoked for cause according to law. Such license which otherwise would have expired under subsection (b) shall be valid only if the licensee has in his immediate possession, together with such license, his papers indicating his active service outside this State or his discharge or separation, as the case may be.

(e) The Department is authorized to destroy the records of the expired licenses six months after the renewals of licenses have become effective.

(f) Upon an original application for licensing as provided for in this Article, the licenses of all such new applicants shall become effective as of the date of issue.

(g) Violation of this section shall be deemed to be a misdemeanor and upon conviction, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment not to exceed sixty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. For a second or subsequent conviction of violation of subsection (a) of this section, the following penalties are applicable, fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both.

86A.

(a) All operators', chauffeurs', special chauffeurs' and motorcycle operators' licenses issued under Article 66½ of this Code prior to January 1, 1971, shall continue to be valid and shall authorize the licensee to drive all classes of vehicles which the licensee was authorized to drive under said license until the expiration of such license at which time it shall be simultaneously converted and renewed.

(b) The holder of an operator's, chauffeur's or special chauffeur's license, issued prior to January 1, 1971, may convert and renew such license to a Class D license any time within sixty days of expiration of same, upon payment of a fee of $2.00.

(c) The holder of an operator's, chauffeur's or special chauffeur's license issued prior to January 1, 1971, may convert and renew such license to either a Class A, Class B or Class C license within sixty days of expiration of same upon:

1. Taking the required tests for the Class of license desired and payment of a fee of $8.00, or,