

(b) Refund. If after payment has been made to the Board of Education a claim for refund is filed by such heir or legatee, or by the personal representative of such heir or legatee, such claimant shall be entitled at any time to a refund, without interest, of any sum so paid, or the proceeds from the sale of any such property if not in the form of cash when transferred to the Board of Education, or the fair market value thereof at the time of transfer if not converted to cash.

~~9-110~~ 9-109. Distribution to a minor—resident or nonresident.

(a) Money. Whenever money is distributable by a personal representative to a minor and there is no legally appointed and qualified guardian of the property of the minor, the Court may order that such cash shall be deposited in any banking institution or insured savings and loan association formed under the laws of this State or in this State under the laws of the United States to be named in the order, in which it may draw interest, in the name of the minor, subject to the further order of the Court. The personal representative shall deliver the account book to such person (including the Register) as the personal representative with the approval of the Court deems responsible and appropriate. When the minor reaches the age of 21, or a guardian is appointed the funds so deposited and the account book shall be delivered to the minor, or to such guardian.

(b) $300 or less in cash. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), if any minor is entitled to an amount not in excess of $300, the personal representative may, with the approval of the Court, pay such amount to such person as the personal representative, with the approval of the Court, deems responsible and appropriate, for the minor's past or future maintenance and support.

(c) Appointment of custodian. In addition to the procedures in subsections (a) and (b), whenever a personal representative is required to distribute any property included within the definition of "custodial property" [as defined in Article 16, Section 213(e)] the personal representative, with the approval of the Court, may transfer such property to a custodian who shall hold or dispose of the property in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland Uniform Gifts to Minors Act. The personal representative shall, subject to the approval of the Court, designate the custodian, who shall be an adult, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company as defined in Article 16, Section 213(a), (h) and (p).

(d) Tangible personal property. Whenever a personal representative must distribute tangible personal property to a minor and there is no guardian of the minor, the personal representative shall distribute the same to such person as the personal representative with the approval of the Court, deems responsible and appropriate, and under the conditions set forth in the order of the Court.

(e) Guardian. Where a guardian has been appointed for a minor, payment may be made to such guardian upon the filing of an authenticated copy of his authority pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. sec. 1738.
