

raccoon and opossum. The words "nighttime" shall be construed to mean [the time beginning with sunset until sunrise the following day;] the time beginning with one-half hour after sunset until one-half hour before sunrise the following day, [the time stated] as set forth by the calendar of hour of sunrise and sunset as published in the Department's Hunters Guide. [It shall be unlawful to hunt any game, except raccoon and opossum, mentioned herein by use of automobile lights, spotlights, or a light of any description.] It shall be unlawful to hunt, kill, catch, or pursue, or to attempt to hunt, kill, catch or pursue, at nighttime, any wild quadruped or wild bird from or upon any vehicle by the use or with the aid of any light or lights, including the headlights of said vehicle. Provided, however, that raccoons and opossums may be hunted at nighttime, on foot, by use of a light or lights during the lawful open season for the taking of same.

(f) The Commission shall set forth by regulation by what means or weapons designated wild fowl or wild game may be taken in the exercise of the privileges granted by said license and shall by such regulation designate and specifically set forth any restrictions on the use of weapons in the hunting or taking of such wild fowl and game including but not limited to the amount and size of ammunition in taking designated game. The Commission shall cause such regulations to be distributed with each hunting license purchased. Nothing in this subsection shall authorize the Commission in any way to restrict the use of firearms except in the exercise of the privilege bestowed by the purchase of a hunting license.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1969.

Approved April 23, 1969.
