

whom service of any process may be made in like manner and with like effect as if it were served personally on such guardian.

[216] 47. Payment of legacy, etc.—Court order.

If any nonresident infant shall be entitled to any legacy, bequest or distributive share, or to any money or personal property in the hands of a trustee appointed by will or shall be entitled to the proceeds of sale of property in this State or to any legacy, bequest or distributive share of any personal property in the hands of any administrator or guardian in this State, and such infant has a guardian regularly appointed in the state, district or territory of the United States in which such infant resides, such foreign guardian may obtain an order from the proper court for the payment, transfer or delivery of such proceeds, legacy, bequest or distributive share upon the terms prescribed in Sections [217 and 218] 48 and 49.

[217] 48. Same—What petition of guardian to state.

The foreign guardian claiming under Section 47 shall state by petition that he is duly appointed guardian to such infant by the proper authority of the state, district or territory where the infant resides; that he hath given good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his trust as guardian, and that as guardian he there has the custody of the person or of the estate of such infant, or both; and he shall set forth in such petition the entire amount of personal property, including that in this State, belonging to such infant, and also the income of the real estate, if any, of such infant, which hath come or is likely to come into the hands of such guardian; which petition shall be accompanied by a copy, duly authenticated, of the record of his appointment and qualification as such guardian, and of the bond or other instrument or security so given as aforesaid.

[218] 49. Same—Verification of petition; sufficiency of security.

The petition shall be verified by the affidavit of such guardian, and the sufficiency of the security shall be proved by the affidavit of the chief clerk or prothonotary of the court by whom such security was taken, or by the affidavit of some other disinterested and credible witness; and upon the court being satisfied of the truth of the facts set forth in such petition, and of the sufficiency of such security, an order may pass for the purposes mentioned in Sections [215, 216 and 217] 46, 47 and 48.

[219] 50. Same—In what courts petitions presented.

If the money or property claimed is in the hands of an executor, administrator, guardian or trustee appointed by will, and the estate of said fiduciary is not being administered under the jurisdiction of an equity court, the petition shall be presented to the orphans' court of the county in which the administration was granted, the guardian gave bond, or the trustee resides.

[220] 51. Same—Applicable only to wards under twenty-one years of age.

Sections [216, 217, 218 and 219] 47, 48, 49 and 50 shall only apply to such nonresident infants as shall be under the age of twenty-one years; and no order shall be passed on the petition of a foreign
