EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Annapolis, Md., May 7, 1968.

The Honorable Marvin Mandel
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Section 17 of Article II of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed today House Bill 790 and am returning it to you.

This bill would change the manner of determination of damages in an action for the wrongful death of a minor child. The sponsor of the bill, House Majority Leader, Thomas Hunter Lowe, has written to me expressing some doubts about the interpretation of the new provisions and asking that it be vetoed. I am complying with his request.

Sincerely,

/s/ Spiro T. Agnew,

Governor.

Vetoed by the Governor—May 7, 1968

House Bill No. 790—By Delegate Lowe:

An Act to amend Section 4 of Article 67 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1967 Replacement Volume), title "Negligence Causing Death," to change the manner of determination of damages in an action for damages for the wrongful death of a person, including a minor child.

The Speaker put the question: Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Executive?

Affirmative

Delegates—

McDonough, McCarty, Burns, Curran.
