

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE

December 17, 1969.

Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

I want to express my thanks to each Member of this Special Session of the General Assembly.

During these two days you have enacted legislation that gives Maryland the fiscal flexibility needed to avoid an immediate commitment to a long-term plan of fixed expenses. By authorizing the State to utilize surplus funds for capital improvements, the General Assembly has enabled Maryland to respond effectively to the pressures of inflation and high interest rates. And Maryland's citizens will realize a substantial savings of tax dollars.

In addition, the General Assembly has acted responsibly by giving the State added flexibility through removal of the bond interest ceiling. This will enable Maryland to hopefully bide time against the fluctuations of the money market.

The extra effort and long hours that the Members of the Legislature devoted to this Special Session deserve a special word of recognition. The energy and thoughtfulness its Members have demonstrated at a time of financial uncertainties merit the gratitude of all the citizens of Maryland.

Sincerely,

/s/ Marvin Mandel,
Governor.
