

113.

After final judgment in favor of the State Board of Health, it shall file a certified copy of the same with the county commissioners in the county where such judgment is obtained, or with the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City, as the case may be, which judgment shall be a lien upon the property of the defendant, to be collected by the said county commissioners, or the said mayor and city council, [as the case may be, in the same way as taxes on real property are now collected; the said lien to bear interest at the rate of six per centum from the date of judgment and to include the costs of the trial, and it shall not be subject to discount or abatement of any kind, nor shall said commissioners or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City so collecting the same be entitled to make any charge for such collection.] the said lien shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum from the date of judgment and shall include the costs of the trial. The County Commissioners or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City shall devise a schedule of payments to provide for the payment of the lien plus costs of trial and interest over a period of ten years from the date of judgment; payment of said lien shall be in accordance with this schedule, except that any unpaid balance may be paid in full at any time. If the lien, including interest and costs of trial is not paid within 10 years from the date of judgment, it shall be collected by the County Commissioners or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore in the same manner as taxes on real property are now collected.

114.

The county commissioners of any county of the State, or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as the case may be, shall pay over to the State Board of Health all judgments, costs and interests which they may collect by virtue of the powers conferred by Sections 109 to 117, and the State Board of Health of Maryland, upon payment to it of any judgment, interest and costs shall pay said costs to the justice of the peace or other court of record, as the case may be, and such judgment, interest and costs shall be entered "satisfied." Provided, however, if the County Commissioners of any county or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore expend county or Baltimore City funds in abating the respective nuisance, then all judgments, costs and interests which they may collect by virtue of the powers conferred by Sections 109 to 117, excepting court costs, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the respective county or Baltimore City.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.
