

Finance for the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City. Each elected judge in active service on June 30, 1970, who elects to be under the contributory pension plan shall contribute toward the cost of his pension in an amount equal to six per cent (6%) of his annual compensation earned thereafter which shall be deducted from his compensation each pay period and paid to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City. Any such judge who initially does not elect to be under the contributory pension plan provided for in this section, but later wishes to do so, must, upon such election, pay in a lump sum in addition to the annual contributions provided for in this section, an amount equal to the contributions he would have made, if initially under this plan for each year after the 30th day of June, 1970, plus interest of four per cent (4%). All judges taking office after June 30, 1970, shall be under the contributory pension plan as herein provided. Any judge covered by the contributory pension plan provided for in this section, who is not elected to a full term, following his appointment, shall be paid the amount of his accumulated contributions plus interest of four per centum (4%) from the date or dates of payment, and shall not be entitled to any pension under this section.

Any judge covered by the contributory pension plan provided for in this section who resigns, for reasons other than disability, prior to reaching sixty years of age, shall be entitled to allow his contributions to remain in the pension system and shall at sixty years of age be entitled to a pension as provided in this section; or shall be entitled to withdraw his accumulated contributions plus interest at four per centum (4%) calculated from the date or dates of payment and shall forfeit any pension rights under the provisions of this section. In no event shall any judge make the contributions provided for by this section for more than sixteen years. The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby expressly authorized to levy for such pensions or salaries, or their proportionate share thereof as the case may be, and pay such pensions or salaries to former judges of said People's Court of Baltimore City.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.

CHAPTER 519
(House Bill 1304)

AN ACT to waive the provisions of Section 10 of Chapter 504 of the Acts of 1966, insofar as they impose a time for placing under contract the project in Section (5)(P)(2)(c) of Chapter 504 of the Acts of 1966, as amended by Chapter 610 of the Acts of 1968, relating to the construction, or purchase and alteration of a President's residence at Frostburg State College, having been previously waived by Chapter 610 of the Laws of 1968.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of Section 10 of Chapter 504 of the Acts of 1966,
