

SAND DOLLARS ($1,000.00) or less, there shall be no formal pleadings. In all other cases forms and pleadings shall be as provided by rule.

(D). JUVENILE JURISDICTION. IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY ONLY, THE DISTRICT COURT SHALL HAVE SUCH JURISDICTION OVER JUVENILE CAUSES AS IS PROVIDED IN ARTICLE 26 OF THE ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND (1957 EDITION AS AMENDED), SUBTITLE "JUVENILE CAUSES IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY".

146. Probation, Probation Without Verdict, Revocation of Probation.

(a) Every District Court judge in any criminal or motor vehicle case within the Court's jurisdiction shall have the power:

(b) Before conviction of any person accused of crime, with the written consent of the person so accused, and after conviction or after plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, without such consent, to (1) suspend the imposition of sentence; (2) place the person on probation before or without verdict or commitment; (3) and in all cases above named to make such written conditions of suspension of sentence and probation as the judge may deem proper; and (4) upon determining that the person has violated any such condition, to strike out the suspension of sentence and to impose sentence as may be authorized by law and to revoke the probation, provided that any person placed on probation shall be under the supervision of the State Department of Parole and Probation, and that the Department shall make available to the District Court sufficient and adequate services and personnel for the conduct of presentence investigations and the supervision of probationers when and where required by the court;

(c) At any time during the period hereinafter set out, and after notice to the probationer or person accused, and after full opportunity to him to be heard either in person or by counsel, to alter, enlarge, modify, or change any one or more of the conditions, and to add other conditions of suspension of sentence or probation, all, however, to be subject to the limitations hereinafter set forth;

(d) To fix the period of probation and suspension of sentence, which period shall not in any event exceed three (3) years from the date of the suspension of sentence or probation, and from time to time, to extend the period of probation and suspension of sentence first fixed, until the conditions originally or thereafter prescribed have been fulfilled, provided that the length of the entire period in no event shall exceed the maximum time herein prescribed;

(e) At any time to end the period of probation, or during the period, on written charges preferred under oath, or violation of any condition of probation, to issue a warrant or notice requiring the probationer or person accused to be brought or to appear before the judge issuing the warrant or notice, to answer the charges of violation of conditions of probation or suspension of sentence, and to fix a date for the hearing of the charge or violation of the conditions, and pending the hearing or determination of the charge, to remand the probationer or person accused to jail or to release him, with or without bail, and if at the hearing the person accused be found to have violated any of the terms of the conditions of pro-