

of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume), title "Health," subtitle "Osteopathy," to follow immediately after Section 474(b) thereof, and to read as follows:

474(c).

(1) Every person holding a license to practice Osteopathy in the State of Maryland is required to register and pay a renewal fee as in this section provided. The first registration is required before October 1, 1970, and succeeding registrations are required annually on or before October 1st of each year. Each registration shall include the person's name, license number, college from which he graduated, date of graduation, office address and whether or not he is in active practice. Notice shall be sent by regular mail to all license holders who are in active practice by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners at least thirty days prior to October 1st of each year advising of the necessity of registration and the payment of a renewal fee of $5.00.

(2) The failure to renew a license, as herein provided, shall operate as a suspension of the rights and privileges granted by the issuance of the license. A license suspended by a failure to pay an annual fee may be reinstated by the Board upon the payment to the Board of all fees that would have been paid had the license holder maintained his license in good standing; plus a special reinstatement fee of $25.00.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.

Approved April 1, 1970
