

(b) A registered dealer may use his dealer registration plates on vehicles in his possession, but not owned by him, if he has the consent of the owner to this use.

(c) Registered dealers may permit the use of their dealer registration plates, for a period not exceeding 10 days from the date of delivery, upon vehicles owned by them, but loaned to prospective purchasers, for the purpose of demonstrating the vehicles irrespective of the business in which the purchaser may be engaged or the use to which the vehicle shall be put during the demonstration period.

(d) Dealer plates shall not be used after notification by the department that they are forfeited because of violation of the provisions of this article.

(e) If any license issued to a dealer under subtitle 5 is suspended, cancelled, or revoked all dealer registration plates issued to the dealer shall be invalid, and no dealer shall operate or move or permit the operation or movement of any vehicle under such plates.

§ 3-601.1. Operation of vehicles under finance company plates.

(a) Any bank or finance company to which the department has issued finance company registration plates, without registering such vehicle, may operate or move upon the highways any vehicle which has been repossessed by or on behalf of such bank or finance company, but only while the repossessed vehicle is being taken from the place of its repossession to a permanent place of storage, upon condition that any such vehicle display thereon in the manner prescribed in section 3-411 one such finance company registration plate.

(b) Finance company registration plates shall be issued only to banks, and to finance companies which have been licensed by the State of Maryland.

(c) Finance company registration plates shall not be used after notification by the department that such plates are forfeited because of violation of the provisions of this article.

§ 3-602. Use of temporary registration plates by purchasers of motor vehicles in lieu of the use of dealer's registration plates.

(a) The department, subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter set forth, may deliver temporary registration plates or markers designed by the department to a registered dealer who applies for at least 5 sets of these plates or markers and who encloses with the application a fee of fifty cents for each set for which application is made. The application shall be made upon a form prescribed and furnished by the department. Registered dealers, subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter set forth, may issue such temporary registration plates or markers to owners of vehicles, provided that such owners shall comply with the pertinent provisions of this section.

(b) Every dealer who has made application for temporary registration plates or markers shall maintain in permanent form a record of all temporary registration plates or markers delivered to him, and shall also maintain in permanent form a record of all temporary registration plates or markers issued by him, and in addition thereto
