- (b) For the protection of the people of this state the Department may refuse to grant any person who has been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude a license as a salesman hereunder, and the license of any person licensed as a salesman hereunder shall be revoked upon his conviction of such a crime.
- § 5-304. Vehicle salesmen must act on behalf of registered dealers.

It is unlawful for any licensed vehicle salesman to act as a vehicle salesman on behalf of any person other than a registered dealer named in a valid license certificate issued to the vehicle salesman under this part.

- § 5-305. Bond required for issuance of salesman's license.
- (a) Prior to the issuance to him of a salesman's license each applicant shall file with the department acceptable evidence of a surety bond in form and with surety as the department approves. The bond shall be for the use and benefit of the department and any member of the public who may suffer or sustain any loss by reason of any violation by the applicant of provisions of this article as the department specifies.
  - (b) The bond shall be in the amount of $1,000.
- (c) The license of any person who fails to file acceptable evidence that the bond required herein has been extended prior to the date of expiration of the bond shall be automatically suspended, and the department shall immediately notify him of the suspension.
- § 5-306. Changes in facts must be reported by salesmen.
- If, during the period for which any license is issued, there is any change in the factual information furnished to the department by the licensee in connection with obtaining or retaining the license, or any extension or renewal thereof, the change shall be fully, truly, and promptly communicated by the licensee to the department in writing, upon forms provided by the department for that purpose. The written communication shall be signed by the licensee and shall certify that the information given thereon is true and correct.
- § 5-307. License fee for salesmen.
- (a) An annual license fee shall be paid to the department for each license, for each year or part thereof during which the license is to be valid.
  - (b) The fee shall be in the amount of $5.

Part IV—Unlawful Acts by Dealers and Vehicle Salesmen

- § 5-401. Unlawful acts by dealers and vehicle salesmen.
- (a) The following acts of any dealer, vehicle salesman, or agent or employee of a dealer are unlawful, and are misdemeanors:
- 1. Wilful failure to perform, without justification, any valid vehicle sales contract; or material deviation from or disregard of the original terms without the consent of the purchaser;
