

(b) The department either may issue a special restricted license or set forth the restrictions upon the usual license form.

(c) The department, upon receiving satisfactory evidence of any violation of the restrictions of such license, may suspend or revoke it, but the licensee shall be entitled to a hearing as provided for a suspension or revocation under this subtitle.

(d) It is a misdemeanor for any person to operate a vehicle in any manner in violation of the restrictions imposed in a restricted license issued to him.

§ 6-114. Duplicate License.

(a) If a license issued under the provisions of this subtitle is mutilated, lost, or destroyed, the person to whom it was issued upon furnishing proof satisfactory to the department that the license has been mutilated, lost, or destroyed, shall obtain a duplicate or substitute thereof upon payment of the required fee.

(b) If a duplicate license has been issued, any person who finds or otherwise obtains possession of the original shall return the original to the department.

§ 6-115. Expiration of license.

(a) A license issued under this subtitle shall expire as the department determines, on either the last day of the licensee's birth month or on the actual anniversary of his birth, in the year determined as follows: If the licensee was born in an odd numbered year, his license shall expire in the odd numbered year next following the year in which his license was issued; if the licensee was born in an even numbered year, his license shall expire in the even numbered year next following the year in which his license was issued; but a license which, under the foregoing schedule would expire less than a year after its issuance may be issued for such longer period as the department determines, for not longer than 3 years.

(b) The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall mail to each license holder, at his last known address as shown by the files of the Department of Motor Vehicles, at least 60 days notice of the date on which his license shall expire as provided in this section. The application shall require the full legal name, residence address, race, sex, height, weight, and date of birth of the applicant, whether the applicant ever has had a driver's license refused, revoked, cancelled or suspended, the applicant's general physical condition, and such other information and answers as the Commissioner by regulation shall require.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a license held by any person who enters or is on active service in the Armed Forces of the United States shall continue in full force and effect so long as the active service continues and the person is absent from this State, and for a further period of thirty days following the date of the person's discharge or separation from active service or return to this State, unless the license is sooner suspended, cancelled, or revoked for cause according to law. A license which otherwise would have expired under subsection (a) shall be valid only if the licensee has in his immediate possession, together with the license, his papers indicating his active service outside this State, or his discharge or separation, as the case may be.
