

§ 6-116. Notice of change of address or name.

(a) If any person after applying for or receiving a license moves from the address named in the application or in the license issued to him or if the name of a licensee is changed by marriage or court decree, the person within 30 days thereafter shall notify the department in writing of his old and new addresses or of the former and new names and of the number of any license then held by him. Upon request of the department, the holder of a license whose name has changed must submit his license to the department, and the department thereafter shall issue to him a new license containing the changed name. The requirements of this subsection do not apply with respect to a license which has expired.

(b) If any person holding a valid license is required to submit it to the department for the purpose of recording a change of name or for any other purpose, the department shall issue to him without charge a temporary license to be valid for not more than 20 days from the date of issuance.

§ 6-117. Records to be kept by the department.

(a) The department shall maintain a file with respect to every application for a license which is actually issued and shall maintain a record of the name of every licensee whose license has been suspended or revoked by the department, and after each name note the reasons for the action.

(b) The department shall also file all accident reports and abstracts of court records of conviction received by it under the laws of this State and in connection therewith maintain convenient records or make suitable notations in order that a record of each licensee showing his convictions and the traffic accidents in which he has been involved shall be readily ascertainable and available for the consideration of the department upon any application for renewal of license and at other suitable times.

(c) The department may destroy the records of expired licenses six months after the renewals of the licenses become effective.

(d) If a charge of violation of this article against any person shall be dismissed by any court of competent jurisdiction, no record of the charge and dismissal shall be included in or placed in the department upon the driving record of the person.

(e) If a driver's record shows only one suspension and he has had no subsequent motor vehicle convictions for a period of 5 years, or if his record shows only one revocation and it resulted from a violation of the provisions of former section 104(b) of this article, prior to its amendment by Chapter 677 of 1963, and he has had no subsequent motor vehicle convictions for 5 years, the driving record of the driver may be destroyed.

§ 6-118. Licenses of drivers with outstanding warrants not to be renewed.

Notwithstanding any other sections of this article, if any person has been charged with a violation, other than parking, under this article after July 1, 1968, has been properly summoned for trial, and has failed to appear for trial and the enforcement agency is unable to
