

or partner, in a corporation or partnership which was the former holder of a drivers' school license which was revoked or suspended by the commissioner;

(3) The applicant does not have a place of business as required by this part;

(4) The applicant is not the true owner of the drivers' school; or

(5) The applicant has not filed and maintained proof of financial responsibility as defined in Section 7-302.

§ 6-504. Suspension, revocation and refusal to renew a license.

(a) The commissioner, or any employee of the department deputized by him, may suspend or revoke a license or refuse to issue a renewal thereof for any of the following causes:

(1) If the licensee has made a material false statement or concealed a material fact in connection with his application for the license or a renewal thereof;

(2) If the licensee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this part or any of the rules and regulations of the commissioner made pursuant hereto; or

(3) If the licensee or any partner, officer, agent, or employee of the licensee has been guilty of fraud or fraudulent practices in relation to the business conducted under the license, or guilty of inducing another to resort to fraud or fraudulent practices in relation to securing for himself or another a license to drive a motor vehicle. The term "fraudulent practices" as used in this part includes, but is not limited to, any conduct or representation on the part of the licensee, or any partner, officer, agent, or employee of a licensee, tending to induce another or to give the impression that a license to operate a motor vehicle, or any other license, registration or service granted by the commissioner, may be obtained by any means other than those prescribed by law, or furnishing or obtaining the same by illegal or improper means, or requesting, accepting, exacting or collecting money for the purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding the renewal of a license, the commissioner may revoke or suspend the license for causes and violations, as prescribed by this part, occurring during the two license periods immediately preceding the renewal of the license.

§ 6-505. Hearing.

A license may be temporarily suspended pending any prosecution, investigation or hearing. Upon refusing, suspending, or revoking a license as hereinbefore in this part authorized, the department shall grant the applicant or licensee an opportunity for a hearing.

§ 6-506. Supervision.

Every licensee shall keep records the commissioner by regulation requires. The records of the licensee shall be open to the inspection of the commissioner or his representatives at all times during reasonable business hours. The commissioner shall prescribe such reasonable rules and regulations as he deems necessary to carry out the
