

§ 7-311. Exception in relation to government vehicles.

The provisions of section 7-310 do not apply with respect to any judgment arising out of an accident caused by the ownership or operation, with permission, of a vehicle owned or leased to the United States, this State or any political subdivision of this State or a municipality thereof.

§ 7-312. Exception when consent granted by judgment creditor.

If the judgment creditor consents in writing, in a form the department prescribes, that the judgment debtor be allowed license and registration or nonresident's operating privilege, the same may be allowed by the department, in its discretion, for 6 months from the date of the consent and thereafter until the consent is revoked in writing, notwithstanding default in the payment of the judgment, or of any installments thereof prescribed in section 7-317, provided the judgment debtor furnishes proof of financial responsibility.

§ 7-313. Exception when insurer liable.

No license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege of any person shall be suspended under the provisions of this subtitle if the department finds that an insurer authorized to do business in this State was obligated to pay the judgment upon which suspension is based, or that a policy of the insurer covers the person subject to suspension, if the insurer's obligation or the limits of the policy are in an amount sufficient to meet the minimum amounts required by this subtitle, even though the insurer has not paid the judgment for any reason. A finding by the department that an insurer is obligated to pay a judgment, or that a policy of an insurer covers the person, shall not be binding upon the insurer and shall have no legal effect whatever except for the purpose of administering this section. Whenever in any judicial proceedings it is determined by any final judgment, decree, or order that an insurer is not obligated to pay the judgment, the department, notwithstanding any contrary finding theretofore made by it, forthwith shall suspend the license and registration and nonresident's operating privilege of any person against whom the judgment was rendered, as provided in section 7-310.

§ 7-314. Suspension to continue until judgments paid and proof given.

The license, registration, and nonresident's operating privilege shall remain suspended and shall not be renewed, nor shall any license or registration be thereafter issued in the name of the person, including any person not previously licensed, unless and until the judgment is stayed, satisfied in full or to the extent hereinafter provided and until the person gives proof of financial responsibility subject to the exemptions stated in sections 7-312, 7-313, and 7-317.

However, if the judgment debtor gives satisfactory evidence that the judgment debt is not good and pleadable or admissible in evidence under the provisions of Section 3 of Article 57 together with proof of financial responsibility in the future, the Department shall restore any license or registration suspended because of nonpayment of a final judgment.
