

bia, the department, in lieu of said deposit, shall accept the certificate of the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia certifying that a deposit of money or securities equal to or in excess of the total amount required by section 7-302 is being maintained in public custody, in trust, for the payment of any judgment recovered against the self-insurer in the United States and Canada.

(h) Any person electing to establish proof of financial responsibility in accordance with subsection (g) shall first file with the department an admission of liability for the tortious acts of the driver or drivers of the vehicle or vehicles displaying the trade name or identifying design of the company.

§ 7-332. Owner may give proof for others.

The owner of a motor vehicle may give proof of financial responsibility on behalf of his employee or a member of his immediate family or household in lieu of the furnishing of proof by the person. The furnishing of proof shall permit the person to operate only a motor vehicle covered by the proof. The department shall endorse appropriate restrictions on the face of the license held by the person, or may issue a new license containing the restrictions.

(a) Any form of proof, as defined in this subtitle, may be offered in lieu of or in substitution for any other form previously accepted by the department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be.

(b) When the department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be, accepts a form of proof in lieu of or in substitution for any other form previously accepted, the previously accepted proof shall be promptly released by the department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be.

§ 7-334. Other proof may be required.

(a) Whenever the department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be, concludes that any form of proof previously accepted as evidence of financial responsibility under this subtitle no longer fulfills the purpose for which it was acquired, the department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be, shall require other proof to be filed in lieu of or in substitution for the previously filed proof.

(b) Pending the filing of proof required in lieu of or in substitution, the department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be, may suspend the operator's driver's license of the person concerned, together with all permits, registration certificates and registration plates issued to the person.

§ 7-335. Duration of proof—when proof may be canceled or returned.

(a) The department or the Public Service Commission as the case may be, upon request, shall release to the person entitled thereto any and all forms of proof of financial responsibility offered under this subtitle:
