

the judgment, stating the amount so realized and the balance remaining due on the judgment after application thereon of the amount realized;

(h) He has caused the judgment debtor to make discovery under oath, pursuant to law, concerning his personal property and as to whether the judgment debtor at the time of the accident was insured under any policy or policies of insurance described in subsection (e) of this section;

(i) Whenever the applicant satisfies the court that it is not practicable to comply with one or more of the requirements enumerated in subsections (g) and (h) of this section and that the applicant has taken all reasonable steps to collect the amount of the judgment or the unsatisfied part thereof and has been unable to collect it, the court may dispense with the necessity for complying with the requirements;

(j) He has made all reasonable searches and inquiries to ascertain whether the judgment debtor is possessed of personal or real property or other assets, liable to be sold or applied in satisfaction of the judgment;

(k) That by the search he has discovered no personal or real property or other assets liable to be sold or applied or that he has discovered certain of them, describing them, owned by the judgment debtor and liable to be sold and applied and that he has taken all necessary action and proceedings for the realization thereof, and that the amount thereby realized was insufficient to satisfy the judgment, stating the amount so realized and the balance remaining due on the judgment after application of the amount realized;

(l) That the application is not made by or on behalf of any insurer by reason of the existence of a policy of insurance whereby the insurer is liable to pay, in whole or in part, the amount of the judgment or by or on behalf of any insurer for any amount sought or claimed for damages to or destruction to the applicant's or an insured's real or personal property including automobiles by reason of collision with an automobile or object or by upset of the automobile, or by reason of coverage afforded the insured providing indemnification from injury or damages caused by uninsured motorists, and that no part of the amount to be paid out of the fund is sought in lieu of making a claim or receiving a payment which is payable by reason of the existence of such a policy of insurance, and that no part of the amount so sought will be paid to an insurer to reimburse or otherwise indemnify the insurer in respect of any amount paid or payable by the insurer by reason of the existence of such a policy of insurance; and

(m) Whether he has a cause of action against any persons other than the judgment debtor in respect of his damages for bodily injury, death, or damage to property and, if so, what steps, if any, he has taken to recover damages from the persons, stating the amounts recovered.

§ 7-613. Order for payment of judgment.

(a) The court shall make an order directed to the Treasurer requiring him to make payment from the fund of the sum, if any, it
