

(b) While the funeral procession is proceeding through the red signal no vehicle not in the procession shall enter the intersection although facing a green signal, unless it can do so without crossing the path of travel of the procession. When the red signal changes to green while the funeral procession is still within the intersection, any vehicle facing a green signal may proceed, but the funeral procession shall have the right of way.

(c) No person operating a vehicle in a funeral procession shall exercise the privileges granted in this section unless the headlights of his vehicle are turned on.

§ 11-203. Pedestrian-control signals.

Whenever special pedestrian-control signals exhibiting the words "walk" or "don't walk" or "wait" are in place, they shall indicate as follows:

(1) Walk—Pedestrians facing this signal may proceed across the roadway in the direction of the signal and shall be given the right of way by the drivers of all vehicles. At an intersection where an exclusive all-pedestrian interval is provided, pedestrians may proceed across the roadway in any direction within the intersection.

(2) Don't Walk or Wait—No pedestrian shall start to cross the roadway in the direction of this signal, and any pedestrian who has partially completed his crossing on the "walk" signal shall proceed without delay to a sidewalk or safety island while the "don't walk" or "wait" signal is showing.

§ 11-204. Flashing Signals.

(a) Whenever an illuminated flashing red or yellow signal is used in a traffic sign or signal it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

(1) Flashing red (stop signal)—When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop at the near side of the intersection, and the stop shall be made at a stop line when one is marked, and if no stop line is marked, then before entering any cross walk, and if there is no stop line or cross walk, then before entering the intersection. The right to proceed after making the stop shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

(2) Flashing yellow (caution signal)—When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past the signal only with caution.

(b) This section shall not apply at railroad grade crossings. Drivers of vehicles approaching railroad grade crossings shall comply with the rules set forth in section 11-701.

§ 11-204.1. Lane-direction-control signals.

When lane-direction-control signals are placed over the individual lanes of a highway, vehicular traffic may travel in any lane over which a green signal is shown, but shall not enter or travel in any lane over which a red signal is shown.
