

§ 11-205. Display of unauthorized signs, signals or markings.

(a) No person shall place, maintain, or display upon or in view of any highway any unauthorized sign, signal, marking, or device which purports to be or is an imitation of or resembles an official traffic-control device or railroad sign or signal, or which attempts to direct the movement of traffic, or which hides from view or interferes with the effectiveness of an official traffic-control device or any railroad sign or signal.

(b) No person shall place or maintain nor shall any public authority permit upon any highway any traffic sign or signal bearing thereon any commercial advertising.

(c) This section shall not be deemed to prohibit the erection upon private property adjacent to highways of signs giving useful directional information and which are of a type that cannot be mistaken for official signs.

(d) Every such prohibited sign, signal, or marking is declared to be a public nuisance, and the authority having jurisdiction over the highway may remove it or cause it to be removed without notice.

§ 11-206. Interference with official traffic-control devices or railroad signs and signals.

No person, without lawful authority, shall attempt to or in fact alter, deface, injure, wilfully knock down, change direction or twist, or remove any official traffic-control device or any railroad sign or signal or any inscription, shield, or insignia thereon, or any part thereof.

Part III—Driving on Right Side of Roadway—Overtaking and Passing—Use of Roadway

§ 11-301. Vehicles must drive on right side of roadway—exceptions.

(a) Upon all roadways of sufficient width a vehicle shall be driven upon the right half of the roadway, except as follows:

(1) When overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction under the rules governing this movement;

(2) When an obstruction exists making it necessary to drive to the left of the center of the highway, but any person so doing shall yield the right of way to all vehicles traveling in the proper direction upon the unobstructed portion of the highway within such distance as to constitute an immediate hazard;

(3) Upon a roadway divided into three marked lanes for traffic under the rules applicable thereon;

(4) Upon a roadway designated and signposted for one-way traffic; or

(5) Upon a roadway which is marked or signposted in a manner which indicates that a contrary rule exists.

(b) Upon all roadways any vehicle proceeding at a rate of speed 10 miles or more below the applicable maximum speed limit or when existing conditions reasonably require a speed below that of the
