

between each two vehicles or combination of vehicles, so as to enable any other vehicle to enter and occupy the space without danger. This subsection shall not apply to funeral processions.

§ 11-311. Driving on divided highways.

Whenever any highway has been divided into two or more roadways by leaving an intervening space, by a physical barrier, or by clearly indicated dividing section so constructed as to impede vehicular traffic, every vehicle shall be driven only upon the right-hand roadway unless directed or permitted to use another roadway by official traffic-control devices or police officers. No vehicle shall be driven over, across, or within any such dividing space, barrier, or section, except through an opening in such physical barrier or dividing section or space or at a cross-over or intersection as established and not then if specifically prohibited by public authority.

§ 11-312. Restricted access.

No person shall drive a vehicle onto or from any controlled-access highway except at the entrances and exits established by public authority.

§ 11-313. Restrictions on use of controlled-access highway.

(a) The State Roads Commission by resolution or order entered in its minutes, and local authorities by ordinance, with respect to any controlled-access highway under their respective jurisdictions, may prohibit the use of any such highway by parades, funeral processions, bicycles, or other nonmotorized traffic, or by any person operating a motorcycle.

(b) The State Roads Commission or the local authority adopting any such prohibitory regulation shall erect and maintain official signs on the controlled-access highway on which the regulations are applicable, and when so erected no person shall disobey the restrictions stated on the signs.

Part IV—Right of Way

§ 11-401. Vehicle approaching or entering intersection.

Except as hereinafter provided, all vehicles shall have the right of way over other vehicles approaching at intersecting highways from the left, and shall give right of way to those approaching from the right, except at through highways, for which separate provision is made in this article.

(a) The driver of a vehicle intending to turn to the left within an intersection or into an alley, private road, or driveway shall yield the right of way to any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction which is within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard.

(b) Every vehicle turning to proceed in the opposite direction shall yield the right of way to any approaching vehicle which is so close as to constitute an immediate hazard.
