

§ 11-504.1. Blind pedestrians.

(a) At any street or road crossing or intersection where the movement of traffic is not regulated by a traffic officer or by traffic control signals, any blind or partially blind pedestrian shall be entitled to the right-of-way at the crossing or intersection if, before attempting to cross, he extends before him at arm's length a cane of white color, or white tipped with red or a chrome, nickel, aluminum, or other reflecting or shining metal cane, or if he is accompanied by a guide dog.

(b) Upon receiving the signal, all vehicles at or approaching the crossing or intersection shall immediately come to a full stop, leaving a clear lane through which the person may pass, and they shall remain stationary until the person has completed the passage of the crossing or intersection.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the movement of traffic at any crossing or intersection where the movement of traffic is regulated by a traffic officer or by traffic control signals, except that if any blind or partially blind pedestrian, having such a cane or accompanied by a guide dog, shall be part way across an intersection at the time the traffic control signals change, he shall have the right of way in completing his passage across the intersection.

(d) Any person who is not blind or partially blind and who uses or carries a cane of white color, or white tipped with red, or a chrome, nickel, aluminum, or other reflecting or shining metal cane, in the manner described in this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Pedestrians shall move, whenever practicable, upon the right half of cross walks.

§ 11-506. Pedestrians on roadways.

(a) Where sidewalks are provided it shall be unlawful for any pedestrian to walk along and upon an adjacent roadway.

(b) Where sidewalks are not provided, any pedestrian walking along and upon a highway shall walk only on the left shoulder, when practicable, or on the left side of the roadway as near as practicable to the edge of the roadway facing traffic which may approach from the opposite direction.

§ 11-507. Pedestrians soliciting rides or business.

(a) Except for the occupant of a disabled vehicle who is seeking the aid or assistance of another vehicle, no person shall stand in a roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride, employment, or business from the occupant of any vehicle.

(b) No person shall stand on or in proximity to a highway for the purpose of soliciting the watching or guarding of any vehicle while parked or about to be parked on a street or highway.
