

(c) Any person removing a wrecked or damaged vehicle from a highway shall remove any glass or other injurious substance dropped upon the highway from the vehicle or vehicles.

(d) No person shall throw, dump, or deposit any trash, junk, or other refuse upon any highway.

(e) If this section is violated by an occupant of a vehicle which has two or more occupants and it cannot be determined which occupant is the violator, the owner of the vehicle, if present, shall be presumed to be responsible for the violation; in the absence of the owner of the vehicle, the operator of the vehicle shall be presumed to be responsible for the violation.

(f) A violation of this section shall not be deemed or treated as a moving violation under section 6-402 of this article.

§ 11-1112. Turning off lights to avoid identification.

No person shall turn off all or any of his vehicle lights for the purpose of avoiding identification.

§ 11-1113. Placing of traffic hazard along any highway.

No person shall place any structure, building, or vehicle on any highway for the purpose of selling or displaying any produce or merchandise in a manner to constitute a traffic hazard, and the person shall, upon the order of any police officer, remove the structure, building, or vehicle.

§ 11-1114. Damage to highways.

(a) No person shall drive or walk upon any new roadbed, or new repairs of any roadbed, before it is opened to traffic.

(b) No person shall drive upon the parking strip or center parkway area on dual highways, unless authorized to do so by the traffic authority which has jurisdiction over the highway.

(c) No person shall willfully injure or damage in any manner any highway while under construction or thereafter or willfully injure or damage any work, material, or structure used in connection therewith.

§ 11-1115. Removing lights or guards.

No person shall move, remove, or alter the position of any light or guard set up for the purpose of closing any highway or any part thereof to traffic.

§ 11-1116. Racing or speed contest.

(a) No person shall operate a vehicle on any highway or on any private property which is used by the public in general, in a speed contest or on a bet or wager.

(b) No person shall participate as a timekeeper or flagman in any unauthorized race or speed contest on any highway. The race or speed contest need not be for a prize, reward, or wager to come within the meaning of this section.
