

Secretary shall also have the power, in his discretion, to remove the name of any person from an eligible list for any wilful misrepresentation of a material matter made in an application for examination to establish an eligible list. A new eligible list for any class shall be combined with an existing list as the [Commissioner] Secretary may by rules provide but in such case any portion of such combined list shall be automatically cancelled one year after being first posted unless held in force as above provided. The markings and examination papers of each candidate shall be open to his inspection upon application at the office of the [Commissioner] Secretary. Whenever the name of any person shall have been certified to five (5) different vacancies (excluding any certification in which the name of a veteran having preference to appointment, as provided in Section 17 of this article, shall stand higher than the name of such person), and such person shall not have been selected by an appointing authority to fill any of the vacancies to which he was certified for appointment, the [Commissioner] Secretary may, if he deems such person to be unsuitable for employment, cause the name of such person to be dropped from the list of eligibles. Such person shall be notified in writing of such action. A candidate who protests removal of his name from the list shall be entitled to a review of such action by a board established under the rules of the [Commissioner] Secretary to review such actions and to advise the [Commissioner] Secretary with respect to such review of such action.

(b) If the [Commissioner] Secretary receives a requisition for the appointment of a person to a permanent position for which no eligible list exists he shall forthwith call an examination and he may if necessary to prevent the stoppage of public business, and not otherwise, certify a qualified person for temporary appointment, with or without examination, and such person shall be appointed by the appointing authority, provided, however, that such temporary appointment shall be pending the establishment of an eligible list only.

(a) Application to [Commissioner] Secretary for temporary appointment.—When from pressure of work an extra position must be established for a period not exceeding six months, the appointing authority shall make requisition upon the [Commissioner] Secretary of Personnel for the appointment of an extra employee stating the duties to be performed and the probable length of employment. The [Commissioner] Secretary of Personnel shall authorize the appointment of, with or without competitive examination, a qualified person; provided, however, that so far as practicable appointment to extra positions shall be made from the eligible lists; and provided further that no such appointment shall be made for a period exceeding six months.

(b) An appointing authority or any officer authorized by an appointing authority may, to prevent the stoppage of the public business when an emergency arises and time will not permit of the securing of the consent of the [Commissioner] Secretary and the appointment by him of a person, appoint any qualified person during the emergency for a period not exceeding sixty days. Persons thus appointed shall be known as emergency employees. Prompt report shall be made to the [Commissioner] Secretary of emergency ap-
