

[(b)] (a) Whenever an owner of land bordering on any waters of this State shall desire to erect a [booby, brush, or stake blind] stationary blind or blind site in front of his property, or other person to whom he shall give permission, he shall not place same within 250 yards of the dividing line of any property owned by him and the adjoining property bordering on said waters, unless with the consent of the adjoining landowner, provided however, that this restriction shall not apply to the small shore owner licensing after October 10, as provided in Sections 154(a) and 159(c) of this Article, and provided further that [()] the distance contained herein shall not apply to the waters that are tributary of the Potomac River in Charles County nor to the waters of Baltimore County [()], same being for the purpose of allowing each landowner bordering on any of the waters of the State permission to avail himself of the privilege of setting, erecting, or maintaining a [booby, brush, or stake blind] stationary blind or blind site in front of his property, provided he is the owner, lessee, [or] licensee or assignee of the amount of shore frontage as required by law.

[(c)] (b) The dividing line between adjoining properties for the purpose of determining the proper location of blinds shall be established as follows: From the point of junction of the properties and the water line a straight line shall be projected along the shore of each of the properties for a distance of 200 yards. Said lines shall follow the general contour of the shore rather than the irregularities thereof. From the above-mentioned point of junction a line shall be projected over the water equally dividing the arc formed by the angle between the two straight lines laid down as above provided along the shore lines of the respective properties.

In situations where the angle between the dividing line projected as above and the straight line or lines along either or both of the adjoining shores is less than 90 degrees, the Director may determine where blinds may be placed in conformance with Section [155] 154 of this Article.

[TRESPASSING UNLAWFUL]

[Ch. 708, Acts 1943]

[162.

It shall be unlawful for any person to enter, use, or occupy any other person's booby, brush, or stake blind or which is licensed as provided for in this subheading for the purpose of hunting wild waterfowl without first obtaining permission from the licensee of said blind. Any person violating any provision of this Section shall be deemed guilty of trespass and be subjected to the penalty as herein provided for other violations under this subheading. The prosecution of such offenders shall be made and proceedings instituted by the licensee of said blind or blinds.]

162.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to enter, use, or occupy any other person's licensed booby, brush or stake blind, or to anchor at or tie to any other person's licensed stake, for the purpose of hunting wild waterfowl or any other purpose without first obtaining the written permission of the licensee, which said requested permission must be in possession at the time such entry or use is made. The