

titled to share in the distribution of tangible personal property he may apply to the court to make distribution, and the court shall appoint a day therefor and direct the giving of notice thereof to all interested persons concerned therewith. The court may appoint two disinterested individuals, not in any way related to any of the interested persons to make an appropriate division for distribution, or recommend to the court a sale of any part or all thereof, and the court shall thereupon direct such distribution as it may deem appropriate.

(b) Sale of personalty.—If, however, a majority in point of value shall fail to appear on the appointed day, or appearing shall object to the distribution suggested, or if the court shall deem a sale of any part or all of such tangible personal property more appropriate and advantageous, the personal representative shall make such sale or sales and divide the proceeds, together with any unsold property, as the court may direct.】

7-601.

(b) Unless the will provides a larger measure of compensation, upon petition filed in reasonable detail by the personal representative or special administrator the Court may allow such commissions as it shall deem appropriate but which shall not exceed those computed in accordance with the following table :

If the property subject to administration is:	The Commission shall not exceed:
Not over $20,000	10% thereof.
Over $20,000	$2,000 plus 4% of the excess over $20,000

A personal representative or special administrator may, within thirty (30) days, appeal such allowance to the circuit court, which shall determine the adequacy of the commissions and increase (but not in excess of the above schedule) or decrease them, as the case may be. For the purposes of this subsection (b) of Section 7-601 only, the phrase "property subject to administration" shall not include fee simple real property or income therefrom, and shall not be affected by expenses or charges attributable thereto.

8-102.

【No】 Unless a contrary intent is expressly indicated in the will, no claim which was barred by any statute of limitations at the time of the decedent's death shall be allowed or paid. Subject to Section 8-103(a), any period of limitations which would terminate, except for the decedent's death, during the 【six months period following the date of the first published notice to creditors shall automatically be extended for an additional six months after its original termination date】 period from the decedent's death until 6 months after the date of the first published notice to creditors shall automatically be extended until 6 months after the date of the first published notice to creditors.

8-108.

(a) Upon the expiration of six months from the date of the first published notice to creditors, the personal representative shall, unless