

qualified guardian of the property of the minor, the court may order that such cash shall be deposited in any banking institution or insured savings and loan association formed under the laws of this State or in this State under the laws of the United States to be named in the order, in which it may draw interest, in the name of the minor, subject to the further order of the court. The personal representative shall deliver the account book to such person (including the register) as the personal representative with the approval of the court deems responsible and appropriate. When the minor reaches the age of 21, or a guardian is appointed the funds so deposited and the account book shall be delivered to the minor, or to such guardian.

[(b) $300 or less in cash.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), if any minor is entitled to an amount not in excess of $300, the personal representative may, with the approval of the court, pay such amount to such person as the personal representative, with the approval of the court, deems responsible and appropriate, for the minor's past or future maintenance and support.]

[(c)] (b) Appointment of custodian.—In addition to the procedures in subsection [s] (a) [and (b)], whenever a personal representative is required to distribute any property included within the definition of "Custodial Property" (as defined in Article [16] 93A, Section [213] 301 (e)) the personal representative, with the approval of the Court, may transfer such property to a custodian who shall hold or dispose of the property in accordance with provisions of the Maryland Uniform Gifts to Minors Act. The personal representative shall, subject to the approval of the Court, designate the custodian, who shall be an adult, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company as defined in Article [16] 93A, Section [213] 301 (a), (h) and (p).

[(d)] (c) Tangible personal property.—Whenever a personal representative must distribute tangible personal property to a minor and there is no guardian of the minor, the personal representative shall distribute the same to such person as the personal representative with the approval of the court, deems responsible and appropriate, and under the conditions set forth in the order of the court.

[(e)] (d) Guardian.—Where a guardian has been appointed for a minor, payment may be made to such guardian upon the filing of an authenticated copy of his authority pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. Section 1738.

(a) Distribution of property.—If the personal representative cannot obtain agreement from all interested persons entitled to share in the distribution of the property he may apply to the court to make distribution, and the court shall appoint a day therefor and direct the giving of notice thereof to all interested persons concerned therewith. The court may appoint two disinterested individuals, not in any way related to any of the interested persons to make an appropriate division for distribution, or recommend to the court a sale of any part or all thereof, and the court shall thereupon direct such distribution as it may deem appropriate.
