CHAPTER 621

(House Bill 1022)

AN ACT to repeal Section 250 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1967 Replacement Volume), title "Natural Resources," subtitle "Fish and Fisheries," subheading "Part 1. General Provisions," to renumber Section 252A as Section 250 of said Article, title, subtitle and subheading; and to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 252 of said Article, title, subtitle and subheading, to repeal the law prohibiting vessels or boats from anchoring or staying in any fishery of the waters of this State and to make it unlawful to sink any obstruction in the berth or haul of any fishery.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 250 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1967 Replacement Volume), title "Natural Resources," subtitle "Fish and Fisheries," subheading "Part 1. General Provisions," be and it is hereby repealed; that Section 252A be and it is hereby renumbered as Section 250 of said Article, title, subtitle and subheading; and that Section 252 of said Article, title, subtitle and subheading, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

No vessel or boat of any description, unless compelled to do so by stress or weather or any other unavoidable accident, shall be anchored or stayed in any fishery of the waters of this State at any time during the shad and herring season, but shall depart within one half hour when ordered to do so by the owner or occupier of such fishery.]

[252A.] 250.

It shall be unlawful for any person to fasten, tie or anchor any boat to or in any other way interfere with any other person's fishing nets, stakes or other personal property in or close to the waters of this State.
