

interests of racing in this State. The Racing Commission shall have supervisory power over the nonprofit corporation incorporated under this subtitle in the same manner and to the same extent, where not inappropriate, as it has over those licensed under the provisions of Sections 7, 15, and 17 of this article.

(b) At least fifteen days prior to acting upon any suspension or revocation of a license granted to the Corporation, the Commission shall give notice of a public hearing at which the proposed suspension or revocation will be considered. A written notice shall be sent to the Corporation; and a notice of the hearing shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation throughout the State. Each notice shall designate the date, time, and place for the public hearing; and it shall state that the Corporation through its proper officers or agents will be heard in person or by counsel.

(c) Following the public hearing, or any extension thereof, the Commission may proceed with the proposed suspension or revocation, may modify the proposal, or may terminate the proceedings without further action, all as it deems to be in the best interests of racing in this State.

(d) The corporation shall not continue its operation and functions in any manner not authorized by its license or in any manner denied or prohibited in an order of suspension or revocation.

(e) An order of suspension or revocation under this section may be appealed by the Corporation to the Circuit Court in the county wherein it has its principal office, or to the Baltimore City Court if the principal office is in Baltimore City; and there shall be a further right of appeal to the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

All the laws of this State codified within this Article and elsewhere which are not in conflict with this subtitle are continued and remain effective, and any non-profit racing corporation formed under this subtitle shall be governed thereby.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.

Approved May 21, 1970.
