

93.

Five (5) supervisors shall be appointed to act as the governing body of the district. The County Governing Body shall appoint one (1) supervisor who shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing body.

The other four (4) supervisors shall be appointed by the Committee from among the residents of the district. ONE OF THE FOUR SUPERVISORS SHALL BE APPOINTED FROM A LIST OF THREE DISTRICT RESIDENTS TO BE SUBMITTED BY THE FARM BUREAU AND ONE FROM A LIST OF THREE DISTRICT RESIDENTS TO BE SUBMITTED BY THE COUNTY EXTENSION SERVICE. The term of office shall be four (4) years. In making the appointments, consideration shall be given to representation from farming, forestry, wildlife, and urban interests where appropriate.

A supervisor shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointments made in the same manner as for the full term.

The provisions of this section (93) shall become effective in each district after ~~June 1, 1970~~ JULY 1, 1971 and at the time of expiration of the elected supervisors terms of office. At that time the two previously appointed supervisors will have less than one and two years respectively remaining in their terms, and the Committee shall: (a) extend the remaining terms of office of the two previously appointed supervisors to a full one and two years respectively, and (b) appoint one supervisor for a three-year term and one supervisor for a four-year term. At the same time the County Governing Body will appoint one (1) supervisor. Thereafter, the term of office of the Committee appointed members shall be four years.

(a) The governing body of the district shall consist of five (5) supervisors [, elected or] appointed as provided hereinabove. [The two supervisors appointed by the Committee] The supervisors shall be interested and knowledgeable in the conservation of soil, water and related natural resources and shall be persons who are by training and experience qualified to perform the specialized skilled services which will be required of them in the performance of their duties hereunder.

(b) The supervisors shall designate a chairman and may from time to time, change such designation. [The term of office of each supervisor shall be three (3) years, except that the supervisors who are first appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of 1 and 2 years, respectively, from the date of their appointment. A supervisor shall hold office until the successor has been elected or appointed and has qualified. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointments made by the State Committee. In the case of an appointment to fill the unexpired term of an elected supervisor, however, the first full term for this position must be filled by election at the next regularly scheduled election in the district. The selection of successors for a full term shall be made in the same manner in which the retiring supervisors shall, respectively, have been selected.] A majority of the supervisors shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority in any matter within
