

[Provided, further, that the number of licenses which shall be permitted to have any off-sale privileges referred to herein shall be limited to those licenses having been granted such permission by the board of license commissioners prior to May 28, 1969. Those licenses having such off-sale privilege on or before May 28, 1969, may be transferred once with such off-sale privilege attached thereto; thereafter, upon a second transfer, the off-sale privilege attaching to said license shall cease. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the transfer of such license without said off-sale privilege. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the transfer of location of the licensed premise. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption off of the licensed premise from the main bar and within the main portion of the dining room facilities.] Provided, further, that the number of licenses which shall be permitted to have any off-sale privileges referred to herein shall be limited to those licenses having such permit and facilities at the time of the effective date of this Act.

For the purpose of this subsection a restaurant shall be defined as any establishment located in a permanent building with ample space and accommodations commonly known as a restaurant wherein hot meals are habitually prepared, sold and served to the public during the hours it is regularly [opened] open for business.

It shall have at least the minimum sanitary facilities required for such an establishment by the regulations of the county health department and shall meet the minimum health requirements of such rules and regulations. It shall have a dining area or areas with sufficient tables, chairs and/or booths to comfortably seat and accommodate patrons.

The establishment shall be equipped with a kitchen having complete facilities and utensils for preparing hot and cold meals to the public.

There shall be employed a sufficient number of cooks, waiters and/or waitresses to serve the number of patrons provided for in the dining area or areas.

Each restaurant shall maintain and display a menu advertising the serving of a variety of hot meals. There shall be on the premises at all times sufficient food to fill orders made from said menu.

Any interruption of restaurant facilities for any reason whatsoever must be reported to the board promptly.

No drug, candy or confectionery store shall be construed to be a restaurant.

On and after May 1, 1966, no new application for a beer, wine and liquor license, Class B shall be granted by the board, and no transfer from one location to another location by the same license holder, and no transfer from one license holder to another at the same location, or from one license holder to another at a different location, shall be approved unless the establishment where it is proposed to locate or transfer the license shall meet the standards contained herein. As of May 1, 1966, a license holder who was granted and held his license prior to June 1, 1965, shall be granted by the board an additional period of two years, expiring as of May 1, 1968, during which to meet the standards contained herein; and during that two-year
