

(b) No person shall sell, offer to sell, or give away, except on the prescription of a physician or dentist, any drug, medicine, compound, nostrum, or device represented by the manufacturer or seller thereof to have curative powers in the treatment of the disease of cancer.

(c) "Cancer" as used in this section means all malignant neoplasms regardless of the tissue of origin and includes but is not limited to malignant lymphoma and leukemia.

134. Confidential Records.

(a) All records and other information procured by the Faculty, component societies, in-hospital staff committees and national medical societies or groups organized for research which contain the identity of any person are confidential records.

(1) Access to and use of such confidential records shall be regulated by Section 101 of Article 35 and Section 10 of Article 75C of this Code.

(2) Nothing in this section restricts publication of statistics and data which do not disclose the identity of any person.

(b) All proceedings and transactions before the Faculty and records thereof pertaining to the investigation and report by the Faculty pursuant to Section 130 of this article shall be confidential to the extent provided for by subsection (a) hereof.

135. CONSENT OF MINOR TO TREATMENT.

(a) The consent to the provision of medical or surgical care or services by a hospital, public clinic, or the performance of medical or surgical care or services by a physician, licensed to practice medicine, when executed by a minor who is or professes to be married, or by a female minor who is or professes to be pregnant, or by a minor who is or professes to be afflicted with a venereal disease, shall be valid and binding as if the minor had achieved his or her majority, as the case may be; that is, a minor who is or professes to be married, or a female minor who is, or professes to be pregnant, or a minor who is or professes to be afflicted with a venereal disease, shall be deemed to have and shall have the same legal capacity to act, and the same legal obligations with regard to the giving of such consent to a hospital or clinical care or services or medical or surgical care or services to be provided by a physician licensed to practice medicine, as a person of full legal age and capacity, the infancy of the said minor and any contrary provisions of law notwithstanding; and the consent shall not be subject to later disaffirmance by reason of minority; and the consent of no other person or persons (including, but not limited to a spouse, parent, custodian, or guardian) shall be necessary in order to authorize the hospital or clinical care or services or medical or surgical care or services to be provided by a physician licensed to practice medicine to the minor or minor's child.

(b) Upon the advice and direction of a treating physician or if more than one, any one of them, member of the medical staff of a hospital, public clinic, or physician licensed to practice medicine may, but shall not be obligated to, inform the spouse, parent, custodian,
