No. 50

(House Joint Resolution 82)

House Joint Resolution requesting the Governor to designate and appoint Mary-Carter Roberts as the "Travel Writer Emeritus" of the State of Maryland.

WHEREAS, Mary-Carter Roberts has been known throughout Maryland for her knowledge of the State's historic and cultural heritage; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roberts recently retired from the Maryland Department of Economic Development, where she served as a member for over ten years; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roberts served prior to her position with the Maryland Department of Economic Development as a travel writer for the now defunct Department of Information; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roberts, in her capacity as travel writer, compiled a series of county-by-county surveys of historic and scenic attractions which served as the basis for tourism programs in many of the counties; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roberts was the author of many articles on the State of Maryland which have appeared in national publications, causing attention and goodwill to be focused on the State of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roberts in 1962 suggested the official recognition of January 14 as "Ratification Day" to commemorate the act which ended the American Revolution and by which the United States officially became a sovereign nation; and

WHEREAS, "Ratification Day" has become an annual event serving to focus national attention on the history and significance of Annapolis and the Maryland State House; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roberts' concern for conservation and beautification led her to write a pamphlet, "Travel, A Force for Conservation," which brought a commendation from the then First Lady, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the General Assembly expresses its appreciation for the many significant and
