

SECTION III: AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Mayor is hereby specifically enjoined to carry out the provisions of Section II hereof, and, as evidence of such compliance, the Mayor shall cause to be affixed to the minutes of this meeting appropriate certificates of publication of the newspaper or newspapers in which the title of this Resolution shall have been published and shall declare the Charter amendment hereby enacted to be effective in due course of law by affixing his signature hereto in the space provided, on the effective date of such amendment.

SECTION IV: AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that as soon as the Charter amendment hereby enacted shall become effective, either as herein provided or following a referendum, the Mayor shall send separately by registered mail to the Secretary of the State of Maryland and to the Department of Legislative Reference of Maryland, a clear certified copy of this Resolution showing the number of Aldermen voting for and against it and a report on the votes cast for or against the amendment hereby enacted and any referendum thereon and the date of such referendum.

The above Charter amendment was enacted by the foregoing Resolution which was passed at a regular meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, 7 Aldermen and Mayor voting in the affirmative and 0 Aldermen voting in the negative, and said Resolution becomes effective in accordance with law on the 31st day of March, 1969.

The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis

By: Roger W. Moyer, Mayor

ATTEST:
Katherine S. Russell, City Clerk

Resolution of March 10, 1969

Resolution of the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, adopted pursuant to the authority contained in Article 11-E of the Constitution of the State of Maryland and Article 23-A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Edition), to add a new section to the Charter of the City of Annapolis, to be numbered Section 47-A, to be entitled "Tax Exemption For Persons Over Sixty-Five" to provide that for persons who are citizens of the City of Annapolis over the age of sixty-five (65) years with a total gross income of less than FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5,000.00) per year, who own real estate located within the City upon which they reside, shall be entitled to a deduction from the assessed valuation of their property for the levying of ad valorem taxes.

SECTION I: BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MAYOR AND ALDERMEN OF THE CITY OF ANNAPOLIS that a new section is hereby added to the Charter of the City of Annapolis to be numbered Section 47-A, to be titled "Tax Exemption For Persons Over Sixty-Five" and to read as follows:

"Every person of the age of sixty-five (65) years or more and whose total gross annual income from all sources is FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5,000.00) or less, who has legal or beneficial title to real property located in the City of Annapolis, and who resides thereon as his or her permanent home, shall be entitled to single tax credit in an amount equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the assessed value of the dwelling of the
