

EDMONSTON*Prince George's CountyAmendment to the Charter, June 9, 1969

I certify that there was a referendum election in the Town of Edmonston, Maryland, on May 5, 1969, on the question of whether to change the time of the opening and closing of the voting polls in the town from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. to the new hours of 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.; that there were 140 votes cast for the change of hours and 50 votes cast against the change of hours; that the following is an exact text of the charter amendment amending Section 564(a) of the Public Local Laws of Prince George's County, Maryland (1953 Edition); and that the effective date of the charter amendment is June 9, 1969:

564(a). Annually on or before the first Monday in April, after notice printed in some county newspaper, the Mayor and Town Council shall appoint not less than one (1) judge and one (1) clerk to conduct an election by ballot on the first Monday of May, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the day following, the election of officers provided for in Section 562, and in its discretion when the situation requires it they may appoint an additional judge and an additional clerk for such purpose. Such election officers shall themselves be eligible for registration as voters under the provisions of the subtitle, at each ward shall be represented by having either a judge or a clerk appointed from its vicinage. The judge or judges appointed in each year shall be the registration officers for each year as hereinafter mentioned. The Mayor and Town Council shall appoint the place of the election and shall give public notice of not less than fifteen (15) days of the time and place of the election by advertisement published in at least one (1) newspaper published in Prince George's County, and also by notice published in at least five (5) public places in said town. The polls shall be open between the hours of [1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.] 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and no person not registered upon the books of the registered voters of the town and who is not an actual resident of said town upon the day of the election shall be allowed to vote in such elections. The Mayor and Town Council shall prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the provisions of the subtitle making them eligible to become a candidate for the office which they seek. The Mayor and Town Council shall receive all returns of elections and determine all questions arising thereunder.

ATTEST:

Stuart B. Hensley, Jr., Mayor
Town of Edmonston
