

up such deficiency from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes which the mayor and council of Rockville is hereby authorized and empowered to levy upon all property within the present or future corporate limits of the city subject to assessment for full municipal taxation, which taxes said city is authorized and empowered to levy in an amount sufficient to meet such deficiency but without any limitation as to such rate or amount notwithstanding any other statutory limitation upon the power of said municipality to levy taxes. Certificates of indebtedness herein authorized may be issued at the discretion of the council and without being submitted to a vote of the taxpayers. Such certificates of indebtedness are hereby specifically exempted from the provisions of sections 33, 34 and 35 of Article 31 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), and may be sold at public or private sale as the mayor and council of Rockville may determine from time to time, may be issued on a maturity schedule which shall conform to the period of time provided for the payment of said special improvements in accordance with the laying of said special assessments as above provided, may bear interest at such rate or rates as the mayor and council of Rockville shall determine, not exceeding, however, six per centum (6%) per annum, and said certificates of indebtedness and the interest payable thereon in the hands of the owner or owners thereof from time to time shall be exempt from state, county and municipal taxation of any kind or nature whatsoever in the State of Maryland. Any laws or parts of laws, except such as confer special jurisdiction upon the state board of health of Maryland, which are inconsistent with the provisions of this section, or which contain any other limitations or conditions on the performance of the work herein provided for or the manner of paying the same, or which confer jurisdiction over such work on any other governmental body or agency, are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistencies or conflicts to the end that this section shall constitute the full and complete authority for the performance of the work herein contemplated by the mayor and council of Rockville within the corporate limits of said city.】

(h) To carry out the provisions of this section, the said council may borrow such sums from time to time as may be needed to make such improvements pursuant to the authority set forth in Section 48-29 of this Code. Any obligations so incurred shall be general obligations of the City of Rockville and shall be payable first from the special assessments levied under the provisions of this section; and, in the event of any deficiency occurring in the amount received from said special assessment, the council shall and it is hereby directed to make up such deficiency from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes which the mayor and council of Rockville shall levy upon all property within the present or future corporate limits of the city subject to assessments for full municipal taxation, without any limitation as to rate or amount.

(i) If, after ten (10) years following the construction of any public improvement, it be necessary, in the judgment of the mayor and council, to reconstruct said work or to make permanent repairs thereto, such reconstruction or repairs may be authorized and directed by the council under the provisions of this section and all or any part of the cost thereof assessed in accordance herewith. This section shall be applicable to any existing public work.

Section 2. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the date of the adoption of this Resolution is October 20, 1969, and that the amendment to the Charter of The Mayor and Council of Rockville hereby proposed by this enactment shall be and become effective on December 9, 1969,
