

(ii) If a participant dies prior to his date of retirement or prior to his normal retirement date in the case of a participant who was determined to be totally disabled in accordance with section 14-303 (a) (1) from an on duty cause without a surviving widow or an unmarried child or children under the age of eighteen years, or

(iii) If a participant, other than a participant with respect to whom monthly death benefits are payable under this subsection, dies prior to his normal retirement date and is receiving disability benefits, or

(iv) If a monthly death benefit as described in this subsection is being paid to a participant's widow or unmarried child or children under the age of eighteen years and if, upon the cessation of all such death benefit payments the total amount of the payments made under this plan to the participant, his widow and his unmarried child or children under the age of eighteen years, do not at least equal the amount of his contributions together with credited interest to the participant's date of death.

(v) There will be refunded to the participant's beneficiary or estate an amount equal to the excess of the participant's contributions together with credited interest to the participant's date of death over the total payment, if any, made on behalf of the participant's coverage under this plan.

Section 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Sections 14-303 (c) (4) and 14-308 (b) and (c) of said Code, Title and Subtitle be and they are hereby repealed and new Sections 14-303 (c) (4) and 14-308 (b) and (c) are hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to stand in the respective places of the sections so repealed, to follow immediately after Sections 14-303 (c) (3) and 14-308 (a), respectively, to read as follows:

Section 14-303 (c) (4) ¶This subsection shall not be applicable to any participant once he has attained normal retirement age provided his disability pension has been in effect for more than five years, nor to any participant past his normal retirement age once his disability pension has been in effect for more than five years. ¶SUBSECTIONS (1), (2) AND (3) OF THIS SUBSECTION SHALL NOT BE APPLICABLE TO ANY PARTICIPANT ONCE HIS DISABILITY PENSION HAS BEEN IN EFFECT FOR MORE THAN FIVE (5) YEARS. Disability pension benefits payable to any participant shall automatically cease as of the participant's normal retirement date at which time the participant shall be entitled to receive a normal retirement pension under the plan.

Section 14-308

(b) Death benefits after retirement. Upon the death of a participant after his date of retirement or his normal retirement date in the case of a participant who is determined to be totally and permanently disabled in accordance with section 14-303 (1) (or, if the contingent annuitant option is in effect, upon the death of the survivor of the participant and his contingent annuitant and surviving unmarried children under the age of eighteen years) within the five year period commencing on the participant's date of retirement or normal retirement date as the case may be, pension payments in the amount that was payable in respect, to the participant's coverage will be continued and paid to the participant's beneficiary during the remainder of such period. If the amount of payments made under this plan to such participant, his contingent annuitant and surviving unmarried children under the age of eighteen years or his beneficiary do not equal the amount of his contributions together with credited interest to his date of retirement or disability, as the case may be, any
