

full faith and credit for the construction of a fire engine house within the Bethesda District as the boundaries are defined by Chapter 28, Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, prescribing the terms and conditions, by reference, upon which said bonds shall be issued and delivered and other incidental details with respect thereto; providing for the levy of unlimited ad valorem taxes for the payment of the principal and interest thereof, and providing that the principal and interest may be paid primarily from proceeds of the district tax levied under the provisions of the said Chapter 28, with such other terms and conditions as the County Council may determine by resolution.

Be It Enacted by the County Council for Montgomery County, Maryland, that—

Section 1. Montgomery County, Maryland, is hereby authorized at any time, and from time to time, upon its full faith and credit to borrow money and incur indebtedness in a total amount not exceeding $850,000 for financing the construction of a fire engine house within the boundaries of the Bethesda District as defined by Chapter 28, Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, for the use of the Bethesda Fire Department, Inc., or its successor including the development of the site therefor, the architectural and engineering services incident thereto and the acquisition and installation of necessary permanent furnishings, fixed permanent equipment and fire fighting equipment therefor. The proceeds from said bonds may be applied to the payment of the first six months' interest on said bonds.

Section 2. Sections 2-111 through 2-119, inclusive, of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, and each and every part of such sections, excepting therefrom only subsections (a), (b) and (d) of Section 2-111, be and they are hereby incorporated in this Act, by reference, as a part hereof, it being the intention of the County Council that said sections shall be applicable in all respects to the borrowing of money, the issuance of bonds, the application of the proceeds of such bonds, and the levy of unlimited ad valorem taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds authorized by this Act.

Section 3. The powers granted by this Act are additional and cumulative and the bonds authorized by this Act may be issued notwithstanding that other bond acts or laws may provide for the issuance of other bonds or the borrowing of money for the same or similar purposes on the same or other terms and conditions.

Section 4. Before borrowing any money or issuing any bonds pursuant to this authority, the County Council shall adopt, in addition to or as a part of any other resolutions required by Sections 2-111 through 2-119 of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, a resolution prescribing the terms and conditions on which the proceeds of the bonds authorized hereunder shall be made available for use by the Bethesda Fire Department, Inc., or its successor. The Council may provide by such resolution that, in addition to the fact that the bonds authorized hereunder are an irrevocable pledge of the full faith and credit of the entire County, the principal and interest on such bonds shall be paid primarily from the taxes levied within the Bethesda District pursuant to Chapter 28, Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended.

Section 5. This Act shall take effect on the 76th day following its enactment.
