

(b) In making a decision on the acquisition of land or improvements, the county executive shall consider the evidence of record at any public hearing, any exhibits therein, and all other proper facts, information and recommendations which he shall deem necessary to arrive at a decision in the best interest of the citizens of the county.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to acquisition of land by the county for roads, streets, alleys, sidewalks, walkways, bridges, drainage, or for land necessary for facilities and appurtenances in connection with such use.

Section 7. Severability.

The provisions of this Article are severable and if any provision, sentence, clause, section or part thereof is held illegal, invalid or unconstitutional or inapplicable to any person or circumstances, such illegality, invalidity or unconstitutionality, or inapplicability shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, sections or parts of the Article or their application to other persons or circumstances. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this Article would have been adopted if such illegal, invalid or unconstitutional provision, sentence, clause, section or part had not been included therein, and if the person or circumstances to which the Article or any part thereof is inapplicable had been specifically exempted therefrom.

Section 8. Effective date.

This Act shall take effect on December 7, 1970.
