16.208—Enforcement

Any violation of the rules, regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to this title shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00). Any person who shall violate such rules, regulations and restrictions shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for every day that such violation shall continue. In addition to other remedies, the zoning enforcement officer may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to compel compliance with the zoning regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to this title.

16.209—Severability

If any clause, sentence, part or parts of this title, or of any section thereof shall be held unconstitutional or invalid such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this title or of any section thereof. The County Council hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this title or any section thereof if it had known such clause, sentence, part or parts or any section thereof should be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 3. And be it further enacted by the County Council of Howard County, Maryland, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare and having been passed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the Council, the same shall take effect from the date of its enactment.

This Bill, having been approved by the Executive and returned to the Council, stands enacted on March 12, 1969.
