

for the primary election. Nothing in this section shall require compliance with Sections 7-1 and 7-2.

12-2.

(c) The board of supervisors of elections in each county and of Baltimore City shall have printed upon the official primary ballots of each of those political parties in each county of the State, and in each legislative district of Baltimore City at the primary election in each year in which a President of the United States is to be elected, the names of the candidates for President and names of candidates for election as delegates to conventions certified to them by the [Secretary of State] State Administrative Board of Election Laws in manner and form and in all respects similar to the way in which the names of candidates for nomination for Governor are required to be printed upon official primary ballots by the provisions of Section 14-1 of this article.

(c) The names of persons nominated by the State convention as candidates for presidential electors shall be certified by the presiding officers of the State convention to the [Secretary of State] State Administrative Board of Election Laws.

16-6.

(a) The ballots shall contain a condensed statement in understandable language of every constitutional amendment or other question to be submitted to the vote of the people at any election. It shall be sufficient in any case to print the legislative title, a brief summary of the contents or purpose of the proposed amendment or referendum unless the act proposing the constitutional amendment or other question specifically provides the title to be used. The State Administrative Board of Election Laws as agent for the Secretary of State shall prepare and certify the form in which a constitutional amendment or question shall appear and each amendment or question shall be captioned with a descriptive title in boldface type containing not more than three words. A constitutional amendment, or any question to be submitted to the popular vote, shall be printed on the ballots following the names of the candidates for office, and in the absence of some other provisions shall be accompanied by the words "For" and "Against." The county commissioners, county council or treasurer of Baltimore City, as the case may be, shall prepare and certify to the boards the form in which local questions shall appear on the ballots. In the event the title of the bill, ordinance or resolution, as the case may be, is one hundred words or less, the title shall be sufficient. In the event the title exceeds one hundred words, a summary of the title containing not in excess of one hundred words shall be prepared and certified to the boards.

(b) Each board, in the preparation of ballots, shall follow the order designated by the [Secretary of State] State Administrative Board of Election Laws and shall always place the proposed constitutional amendments and the other State-wide referenda, if any, in numerical order as indicated. If there are any local questions or referenda they shall appear at the top of the ballots and shall be listed in a sequence to be determined by the county commissioners,
