

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 409 (d) of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume and 1969 Supplement), title "Governor—Executive and Administrative Departments," subtitle "Commission on Negro History and Culture," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

409.

[(d) The Commission shall submit to the Governor and the General Assembly, not later than October 1, 1969, an interim progress report of its procedures, plans and accomplishments. Not later than March 1, 1970, the Commission shall submit to the Governor and the General Assembly a comprehensive final report, complete with all its findings and recommendations. On April 1, 1970, the Commission shall cease to exist, unless prior to that date the Governor extends its existence and work to some definite future date; and on whatever day the Commission ceases to exist all its records, materials, and properties shall be turned over to the Board of Public Works for storage, distribution, or disposition.]

(d) The existence of the Commission shall be extended to the end of the 1971 session of the Maryland General Assembly, and the Commission shall complete its work by that time.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 15, 1970
