CHAPTER 169
(House Bill 363)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, subsection (6) of Section 478B OF ARTICLE 48A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume and 1969 Supplement), title "Insurance Code," subtitle "Maryland Property Insurance Availability Act," to redefine "Essential property insurance" and to add vandalism and malicious mischief coverage to those types of insurance subject to approval by the State Insurance Commissioner and to delete vandalism and malicious mischief coverage as those types of insurance subject to designation by the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That subsection (6) of Section 478B OF ARTICLE 48A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume and 1969 Supplement), title "Insurance Code," subtitle "Maryland Property Insurance Availability Act," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

478B.

(6) "Essential property insurance" means insurance against direct loss to property as defined and limited in standard fire policies and extended coverage endorsement thereon[,] and against the perils of vandalism and malicious mischief, all as approved by the Commissioner, and insurance for such types, classes and locations of property against the perils of [vandalism, malicious mischief,] burglary [.] or theft as the Secretary by rule shall designate. Such insurance shall not include automobile insurance and shall not include insurance on such types of manufacturing risks as may be excluded by the Commissioner.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.

Approved April 15, 1970
