Approved April 15, 1970

CHAPTER 171
(House Bill 398)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 1 of Chapter 759 of the Laws of 1969, by which Allegany County, Maryland, was empowered to borrow up to $3,000,000 and issue bonds, promissory notes or other certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring land and constructing, expanding, renovating, or altering certain existing public school facilities, and for acquiring equipment needed for the operation of the public school facilities, to provide that the interest rate on the bonds, promissory notes or other certificates of indebtedness be unrestricted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 1 of Chapter 759 of the Laws of 1969 be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

1. The County Commissioners of Allegany County, a body corporate, in order to provide funds for the purpose of acquiring land and the construction, expanding, renovating, or altering certain existing public school facilities, and equipment needed for operation of said public school facilities in Allegany County, are authorized and empowered to borrow from time to time, in such amounts as the Board of County Commissioners shall deem necessary, money on the faith and credit of said county, and to issue therefor the promissory notes or bonds or other certificates of indebtedness of
