

fied voters present at such meeting. Any such bylaws after once being adopted shall subsequently be subject to amendment, modification or repeal at any annual meeting or special meeting of the parish or congregation in the same manner. Ten days' notice in the manner above provided for the annual meeting shall be given for any such special meeting of the parish or congregation with statement of the particular purpose of the meeting. This provision for greater flexibility in the administration of the secular affairs of such parish or separate congregation, shall be an alternate authority and shall be exercised only after the congregation or parish shall first by resolution have adopted and declared its intention of availing itself of the provisions thereof. If and when such alternate method of electing vestries is adopted by any parish or separate congregation, the particular plan of procedure with regard thereto shall be recorded in the official register of the parish and be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any member of the parish or congregation.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.

Approved April 15, 1970

CHAPTER 210
(House Bill 1096)

AN ACT TO PROVIDE for the establishment of the Upper Pocomoke Sound portion of the Maryland-Virginia boundary line.

WHEREAS, by virtue of Chapter 357 of the Maryland Laws of 1969, the Maryland Geological Survey was authorized to undertake with the Maritime Resources Commission of the State of Virginia, the establishment, marking and identification of the seven mile portion of the Maryland-Virginia boundary line in Upper Pocomoke Sound; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to said Act the said Maryland Geological Survey and the Marine Resources Commission of the Commonwealth of Virginia have agreed upon said boundary line;

WHEREAS, the Maryland Geological Survey and the Marine Resources Commission of the Commonwealth of Virginia have reported their metes and bounds description of said line to the Governors of the two States respectively and each Governor has approved said boundary line;

NOW, THEREFORE,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Maryland-Virginia boundary line in the approximately seven miles in the Upper Pocomoke Sound in Worcester County, Maryland, and Accomack County, Virginia, be and it is hereby described as follows: