

referee of such matches upon payment of the annual license fee of ten dollars ($10.00); an annual license to participate, as contestant, in such matches upon the payment of an annual license fee of ten dollars ($10.00); an annual license to act as second in such matches upon payment of an annual license fee of ten dollars ($10.00); an annual license to act as manager of such matches upon payment of an annual license fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00); and an annual license to act as a matchmaker upon payment of an annual license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00); and no unlicensed person shall act as referee, promoter, matchmaker, manager or second of any of such matches or participate therein as contestant, nor shall any person, club, corporation or association permit any unlicensed person so to act or participate. Every license shall be subject to such rules and regulations and amendments thereof as the Commission may prescribe. Every application for a license as herein provided for shall be in writing and shall be addressed to the Commission, and shall be under oath. It shall contain a recital of such facts, as, under the provisions hereof will show the applicant entitled to receive a license, and in addition thereto such other facts and recitals as the Commission may by rule require to be shown; provided, however, that before said Commission shall issue a license for a boxing, sparring or wrestling match in Montgomery or Prince George's Counties, it must first secure the permission of the County Executive of Montgomery County for a match to be held in that county or the County Commissioners of Prince George's [in the] County [in which said] for a match [is] to be held [.] in that county.

(d) Montgomery County.—In Montgomery County the fees for dogs shall be determined by the County [Council] Executive of said county.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 198 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Supplement), title "Licenses," subtitle "Dog Licenses in the Counties" be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

When any inhabitant of any county shall have any sheep, poultry or livestock destroyed or injured by a dog or dogs, he may apply to any trial magistrate of said county, who shall appoint three disinterested persons as appraisers to view and appraise the damages by him sustained, at least one of said appraisers shall be a deputy sheriff of said county and they, under oath, shall state in writing to the County Commissioners of said county, the number of sheep, poultry, or livestock killed, the character and extent of the injury, if any done, and the amount of the damages, upon which they shall all agree, sustained by the owner; and both the appraisers and the owner of the sheep, poultry or livestock shall make oath that they believe the same to have been destroyed or injured by a dog or dogs, and when the report of such proceedings has been filed, the County Commissioners of said county shall review said report, and if in their judgment the amount of damages stated is unfair, they shall award such amount as they may deem fair; which award shall be
