

compliance therewith as the Commissioner deems necessary. After the expiration of the time prescribed in the notice, the Commissioner in writing, may inform the Attorney General of the fact that the notice has been given and that the person or public authority to whom it was directed has not complied with the notice. Upon receipt thereof, the Attorney General at the earliest possible time shall bring suit in the name of the State in the Circuit Court of the County or in the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City in which the public body is located, to enjoin the award of the contract for a public works, or any further work or payments thereunder if the contract has been awarded, until the requirements of the notice are fully complied with. The Court may issue a temporary restraining order without notice to the defendant in the action. Upon final hearing thereof, if the Court is satisfied that the requirements of the notice by the Commissioner to the defendant were not unreasonable or arbitrary, it shall issue an order enjoining the awarding of the contract for a public works, or any further work or payments thereunder if the contract has been awarded, until the notice is fully complied with. The injunction shall continue operative until the Court is satisfied that the requirements of the notice have been complied with, and the Court shall have and exercise with respect to the enforcement of such injunctions all the power reposed in it in other similar cases. TO SEEK SUCH REMEDIES WHICH THE COURT MAY FIND APPROPRIATE TO EFFECTUATE THE POLICIES OF THIS SUBTITLE. Both the plaintiff and defendant in the action shall have the same rights of appeal as are provided by law in other injunction proceedings.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.
