

in the method of determining the amount of financial assistance granted to the several counties or Baltimore City for any junior college project.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 5 (2) (c) of Chapter 27 of the Laws of Maryland 1964 be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

5 (2).

(c) The amount of financial assistance granted to any one or more counties or to the City of Baltimore under the terms and conditions of this Act for any junior college project is determined by the sum of [Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00)] six thousand dollars ($6,000.00) times the proposed capacity of the college in numbers of students, subject to the limitation that State funds will not exceed one-half of the total construction cost of any junior college project.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.

Approved April 22, 1970

---

CHAPTER 305
(Senate Bill 678)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 704 (c) of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Supplement), title "Crimes and Punishments," subtitle "Places of Reformation and Punishment," subheading "Department of Correctional Services," to provide that the Department of Correctional Services shall have authority to require that political subdivisions accept transfer of prisoners from any jail which has been closed by the jail programming and inspection officer, and to correct obsolete language.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 704 (c) of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Supplement), title "Crimes and Punishments," subtitle "Places of Reformation and Punishment," subheading "Department of Correctional Services," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

704.

(c) At least annually, the officer or his designated representative shall inspect the regional detention and correctional centers, the several county and Baltimore City jails, lockups, jail farms and other such places of detention. The officer will submit a report to the county commissioners of the several counties and the mayor and city council of Baltimore, showing the results of such inspection together with recommendations as to any improvements or construction which should be made. In the event the officer finds that the regional deten-